

Morse Code Necklace + Museum Tour

Discover how rural Floridians communicated throughout communities and learned about news from the Northern States in the 1890s. Tour our Depot and see our telegraph machine, visit our print shop and pick up a newspaper, see if you have any mail at the Post Office, plus visit the store keeper in the Terry Store, who always knows the town news!

Everyone will make a Morse Code Necklace to take home.

This 90 minute visit features a guided walk through the Cracker Country living history museum and grounds plus everyone gets to make a Morse Code necklace to take home.

Cost: $12.00 per person (includes tour, Morse Code necklace supplies, and snack*)

Example Stations:

Okahumpka Depot

Print Shop

Post Office

Terry Store

Carlton House

+ Make a Morse Code Necklace

Plus, each group will have the opportunity to visit our gift shop.

In the Cracker Country General Store you will find a wide selection of historical toys, games, candy, books, 1890s reproductions and much more. Prices start at an affordable $0.30.

The General Store accepts cash, Visa, Master Card, and personal checks. No checks or credit cards accepted from students.

Proceeds from sales in the General Store help support Cracker Country's education programs.

*Snack does not serve as a meal replacement.